about me

Hiiiii, my name is Rens. I live in Raalte (nearby Zwolle) and I started studying Aerospace Engineering at TU Delft this year. I love music, (art house) film and airplanes. They are all so pretty. Like I get that airplanes are often used for war and destruction but they're also just so cute and interesting (separate the art from the artist or something).

My ambitions are to learn as much as possible about things that fly. I also really want to learn to make a documentary type film and improve at playing the guitar. Additionally I would also really love to find a room in Delft (please if you know anything, hit me up)

1. motivation

Heyyyyyy, I'm Rens :3 I currently live in Raalte together with my lovely parents and brother and the sweetest little labrador, but I'd still rather have my own room in Delft (still looking into that: if you know anything, let me know!!).

In my spare time I really love to watch movies and listen to music, or watch videos about movies and music. My favourite musicians are probably Phoebe Bridgers, Snail Mail, Julien Baker, Florist, boygenius, Big Thief, Wednesday, Clairo, I could go on... So yeah, I like music. It's like music to my ears (sorry).

As for movies I absolutely adore art house dramas that make me sob like a little baby such as Portrait of a Lady on Fire (2019), Aftersun (2022), Columbus (2017) as well as incredibly campy movies like Mean Girls (2004) and But I'm a Cheerleader (1999).

I also really like airplanes and everything else that flies. Airplanes have always just fascinated me, especially fighter jets as they're so sleek and fast and agile (but they carry weapons :c). When I was a kid I wanted to become a fighter pilot, but I don't like weapons and guns so I changed my mind xd. If flying fighter jets as if they're highly expensive aerobatics planes was a job, I'd be training for that right now.

But in reality I'm actually studying to be an aerospace engineer. Where? In Delft. What's also in Delft? Outsite/DWH. Why do I care about Outsite? Because I think it's amazing to have a place and community where virtually everyone is queer, as it can sometimes be difficult to really feel understood in less queer-friendly spaces.

Furthermore the people at Outsite are just super kind and sweet and lovely and precious. I'd love to get to know them better as well as give something back to the community :).

Since I have to get my BSA and I'm still looking for a room (have I mentioned that yet?), I'd prefer something that isn't that intense. For that reason, I think InsideOUT, Licht&Geluid, and/or ComCom (my favourite!!) would be a good fit.

InsideOUT I think would fit because I love silly activities :3. Meeting bi-weekly also means it stays laid-back.

Licht&Geluid is something I know absolutely nothing about but I'd love to learn. It just interests me, what can I say. Probably should find a room first though if this is an option.

Lastly ComCom is something I think I would really like too. I love messing around in Photoshop and stuff to make very bad edits (as illustrated in the portfolio).

In short, I'd really love to give something back to the community and get to know you all better.

2. portfolio

In my opinion, design should be functional in the first place. To me that means that a design can be incredibly simple and rough, but if it gets the point across, then it is a good design.

Of course, polishing it up can make it more aesthetically pleasing, but I find that this process often kills the spirit and vibe of the design. What is left usually feels very corporate and artificial, which I find repulsive.

Anyways, here are my cutesie pictures

Left: Poster for a detective game family event. The design goal was to make a silly poster that still got the theme across.

Right: A collage of all the cute anime-themed stuff I could find at a Japanese car show (I'm not really a car person).

Opposite: A collage of images and film stills that I just absolutely adore. It was intended for to be used as a banner for my youtube channel. Depending on the device it is viewed on, the banner would show or hide sections of the image.

Rooms in Delft

~~REPORT SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY~~

~~TO ME PLEASE YES ME~~

~~(06 20 20 20 20)~~

or 911 in case of emergency

Opposite: Advertisement I made to help find a room in Delft (as of writing this I still am looking for a room, though this poster has resulted in several strangers messaging me about a room. PLEASE do message me if you know anything though).

Right: The sticker adaptation of the advertisement. I am currently working on getting these printed so expect to see them on lampposts in Delft very soon.

Right: Gift card in the style of Bol.com that I made for a friend's birthday. I despise how corporate it looks, but that was the intent.

Left: MIFFY AEROSPACE SWEATER YESSSS you CANNOT tell me that this is a bad design like look at it it is gorgeous the colour combinations the layout the simplicity the warmth of the orange the classy cyan that just so happens to be the house style of the TU Delft as well like hello this right here is perfect.

Above: Lindsey Jordan of Snail Mail fame battling off the Supreme Court of the United States of America after they overruled Roe v. Wade.

Left: Artist's impression of how the upcoming A24 horror movie "I Saw the TV Glow" will feature a stand-off between Lindsey Jordan and Phoebe Bridgers.
